MINISTER VISITS UNFICYP

The Finnish Minister of Defence His Excellency Mr Seppo Westerlund visited Headquarters UNFICYP last week and called on both Ambassador Perez de Cuellar and Major General J. J. Quinn. With the Minister were Major General A. Pajunen (extreme left) and Ambassador Kahiluoto.

General Quinn Visits Force Reserve

General Quinn paid his first visit to B Squadron 15th/19th The Kings Royal Hussars, the Force Reserve, recently. During his visit he was briefed on the squadron's current tasks and saw for himself what conditions are like on patrol. He is seen with his ADC Captain L. Bonthron, (right) being briefed by Sgt Harrison and left in his ferret ready to move off.

THE "ENEMY" FAILED TO INVADE CAPE PYLA

Five times "enemy forces" tried to invade Pyla and five times they failed. That was the result when two platoons from the Swedish battalion practiced field firing at Cape Pyla. There was no helicopter available that day so the airborne troops were dropped in the battle area by a Land-dover!! The "White Elephants" — the English nickname for the old Swedish armoured cars — also took part in the battle. In the afternoon, at the end of the exercise, approximately 4,000 rounds of ammunition and 20 grenades had been fired.

A BLANKET BANQUET

"Clean Monday" that is the name of the first day of the 40 days of Lent in the Orthodox Church. In Sector Six this day is traditionally celebrated in the neighbourhood of Cape Greco. A large number of families and youths from the surrounding villages gathered in the area and the narrow roads were packed with cars and strolling people. As in the past the Swedish soldiers from Famagusta joined the picnic. Almost everywhere people could be seen sitting on their blankets enjoying such food as cuttle fish and all kinds of vegetables which are typical for Lent and the "Clean Monday", and drinking the local red wine and brandy. Many of the Swedish soldiers said that the day was like a rehearsal for their "Midsummer Night", and that they had thoroughly enjoyed taking part in this Cypriot festival.

The parade also marked the closure of the RAF Station Nicosia, as responsibility for the area has now been taken over by the Army Headquarters in Episkopi. The RAF presence in UNFICYP was clearly seen when Corporal R. J. Coventry of 84 Squadron Detachment received his medal (above) from General Quinn.

AND AGAIN "WASSER MARSCH" AT AUSCON CAMP

Unserer "Feuerlöschung" am 10. Februar war ein voller Erfolg beschieden. Aber schon 2 Stunden später hatten es unsere Pioniere geschafft - das Wasser lief wieder.

The routine fire drills at Auscon were put to the test successfully when a fire broke out in the sauna on 10th February. Due to the skillful work of the Pioneers everything was repaired and in working order only 2 hours later.

The Pioneers prove their repair works as they wash their own hands after the fire.

CANCON E W S

Recently Cancon has been honoured by two visits by members of our Diplomatic Corps. On 21st February Mr Michael Bell visited the Contingent from his post in Tel Aviv. On 24th February Mr William Barton, Canada's Ambassador to the United Nations visited both the Canadian Contingent and other contingents on the Island. Some of our members also were introduced to another sport, rugger, during a recent UNFICYP tournament. They report that they suffered only one broken nose.

Besides keeping busy on spring cleaning and briefing of visitors, we are still finding time to participate in sports. A Canadian winter sport which our Logistics Coy people successfully brought to Cyprus was curling. Although normally the game is played on ice, Log Coy had a very enjoyable Curling Bonspiel by the use of a bit of imaginative thinking. (See picture below right)
