

BLUE BERET

In the Service of Peace UNPOL Medal Parade

On Friday, 17 April 2015, twenty-one UNPOL members lined up proudly to receive their UN Peacekeeping Medals from Force Commander Major General Kristin Lund. The Cyprus Police Band was on hand to provide an impressive accompaniment, and a beautiful medley of the 8 national anthems of the countries whose peacekeepers were awarded medals during the ceremony: Bosnia and Herzegovina, China, India, Lithuania, Romania, Serbia, Slovakia and Ukraine. Senior Police Adviser Andrii Sachavo congratulated UNPOL members on their excellent work in support of UNFICYP's mandate to contribute to the maintenance of law and order in the Cyprus buffer zone.

There are currently 63 United Nations Police officers serving with UNFICYP from 11 different countries
